

Discover

Discover Denton...and all that jazz! Music and museums. Amusements, arts and antiques. History, hospitality, horse farms and higher learning. Shopping, sports, dining and festivals. There's so much to discover in Denton, the hardest part is knowing where to start!

When it comes to blending sights and sounds, Denton is a virtual orchestra of small town charm and big city arts, culture, education and entertainment. Situated 36 miles north of Dallas and Fort Worth where I-35 E meets I 35 W, Denton is the county seat of Denton County. From the century-old courthouse and quaint town-square to the world-class

Texas Motor Speedway, Denton offers a setting where these diverse worlds meet and match the "fun-factor potential" of any destination anywhere!

Discover Denton. Whether it is the international feel of the university communities with a combined student population of 40,000 and a world renowned jazz band or the serene beauty of some of America's finest horse country, Denton is truly a city without limits. It's family, friends, festivals and fun. It's downright delicious food and fanfare. It's music, museums, magic, and happy memories. It's history. And it's history in